

Find your new challenge as a

Process Mechanic (m/f/d)

Job ID: DON-60548570/ Location: Donauwörth/ Working hours: Full-time

What you can expect:

Join AERO – partner of Airbus and one of the largest personnel service providers in the aerospace industry. Get a permanent position with our customer, get Equal Pay and lay the foundation for the potential takeover at Germany's largest aircraft manufacturer in Donauwörth with your excellent work..

We offer you:

- Unlimited employment contract
- Above-average payment or Equal Pay
- Comprehensive support during the recruitment process and as an employee
- Attractive company pension plan
- Chance to be permanently hired Germany's largest airline company
- Flexible handling of overtime, such as time off in lieu or payout

For our customer in Donauwörth, we are looking for a process mechanic (m/f/d). The following tasks are within your field of activity:

- manufacturing of components by hand laminating, as well as various models and different technologies
- removal of components from the laminating moulds
- Operation of laser projection systems
- Carrying out self-tests within the framework of production testing activities

Your strengths:

As a process mechanic (m/f/d) with our customer, you have:

- successfully completed apprenticeship as a process mechanic (m/f/d) or a comparable qualification in the industrial sector.
- many years of professional experience in manufacturing/production
- good knowledge of SAP and BDE (desirable)
- Business fluent German language skills and basics in English
- Readiness to work in 2 to 3 shift operation

Employment conditions:

Hourly rate: 16 - 19 Euros depending on work experience and/or length of service.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO RECEIVING YOUR APPLICATION!

Special information

This position is with a temporary employment agency in the aviation/aerospace industry, offering Equal Pay. Along with this, you benefit from reliable work planning and the chance to be integrated permanently into the customer's operations. At AERO - Partner of Airbus – specialists will support you from the very beginning; whether in the area of application, recruitment, accounting or business travel, or any other other questions that may arise.

We appreciate electronic application documents, consisting of a detailed curriculum vitae, a short cover letter including your salary expectation and your certificates (school, training and work certificates other certificates) with a maximum size of 4 MB.